

commuter
tax benefits
your employees can save more than $1,200 per year

reduce your organization's payroll taxes by letting employees use pre-tax dollars for transportation expenses

Commuter tax benefits are a part of a federal program* to help employees reduce their monthly transit, vanpool, biking, and/or parking costs.

ways to save

The 2016 U.S. tax code allows employers to provide employees with commuter benefits of up to $255 per month for transit and vanpool expenses, or $20 per month for bike expenses.

- Employees may set aside pre-tax dollars through payroll to cover their commute expenses and reduce taxable income
- As an employer, your payroll taxes will decrease, saving you money

It's a win-win for both your organization and your employees! Help with employee retention and help your bottom line.

how employers and employees can save using the pre-tax benefit*

The savings add up for you and your employees.

Monthly Employee Pre-tax Allocation

The more your employees participate, the more you save.

*Based on an individual in California making $52,000/year; all figures are approximate. $72 is the current cost of a Metropolitan Transit System (MTS) Regional Monthly transit pass; $165 is the current cost of an MTS Regional Pass Plus with COASTER all zones monthly transit pass; vanpool expenses may vary, but $255 is the maximum monthly pre-tax benefit amount.

For more information, visit 511sd.com/iCommute, email employersupport@sandag.org, or call 511 and say "iCommute."