

commuter
tax benefits
your employees can save up to $1,200 per year

reduce your organization's payroll taxes by letting employees use pre-tax dollars for transportation expenses

Commuter tax benefits are part of a federal program* to help employees reduce their monthly transit, vanpool, uberPOOL, Lyft Shared, or parking costs.

ways to save

The 2018 U.S. tax code allows employers to provide employees with commuter benefits of up to $260 per month for transit, vanpool, uberPOOL, or Lyft Shared expenses.

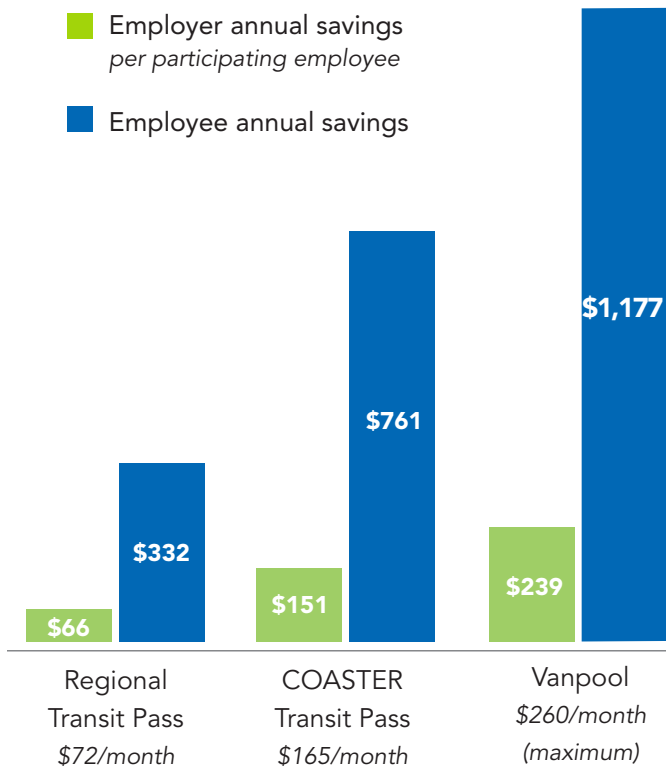

- Employees may set aside pre-tax dollars through payroll to cover their commute expenses and reduce taxable income
- As an employer, your payroll taxes will decrease, saving you money

It's a win-win for both your organization and your employees! Improve employee retention and help your bottom line.

how employers and employees can save using the pre-tax benefit*

The savings add up for you and your employees.

Monthly Employee Pre-tax Allocation

The more your employees participate, the more you save.

*Based on an individual in California making $52,000/year; all figures are approximate. Employer payroll tax savings is their 7.65% FICA contribution. The current cost of a Metropolitan Transit System (MTS) Regional Monthly transit pass is $72; $165 is the current cost of an MTS Regional Pass Plus with COASTER all zones monthly transit pass; vanpool expenses may vary, but $260 is the maximum monthly pre-tax benefit amount.

For more information, visit 511sd.com/iCommute, email iCommute@sandag.org, or call 511 and say "iCommute."